PRESIDENT TO TAKE POLICE SERGEANTS KNOTTY PROBLEM TO SUMMER HOME

To Decide Whether Teachers police by the board of police commis-May Wear Religious Garb.

President Taft will take to Beverly with him for study a report of Secretary of the Interior Fisher on the question of religious garb in the Indian schools. The Secretary of the Indian receive $60 amonth, while the two others will receive $60 amonth.

The Secretary of the Interior turned this document over to the President just before starting for Hawaii. Where he is to investigate charges against the administration of Governor with the Eighth district will convene at noon tomorrow in Elks' Home.

The question is a much vexed and bit- at which time the question of whether terly debated one. It is whether mem-bers of Catholic religious communities teaching in the Government Indian schools may wear their distinctive garb. Commissioner of Indian Affairs Valentine ruled adversely some months ago. Appeal was made to President Taft, who suspended the order pending investigation. Thereupon the President was charged with making a political move a charged which he hely deried move, a charge which he hotly denied.

ploye Whose Scalp Was Torn

Miss Alice V. Houghton, whose scalp was torn from her head by the belt of a machine in the Census Bureau, will receive no compensation for her frightful injury from the first session of the present Congress. The Senate passed a bill appropriating $4,200 for her. The House did not pass the measure.

A bill was introduced in the House to increase this amount and Senator Martine tried last week to get the Martine tried last week to get the appropriation increased to $7,500. All of the plans failed.

The victim of the accident is still centined to her father's home, 2011 Kalorama road. It is not certain that she will survive the injury which has caused her several months of constant suffering.

In an attenut to stave her life the surgeon took more than one hundred stitches in the lacerated parts of the scalp to join the flesh. It was later necessary to remove the bruised and torn fragments and the slow and painful process of skin grafting was begun. This work has never been completed.

Physicians are still in dally attend-Physicians are still in daily attend-ance upon the young woman.
